

Collin Stabler

In Dr. Lelkes' Lab I am trying to isolate a specific "spore-like" type of adult stem cell from the distal lung tissue of rats. If I can succeed then I will try to reproduce the same results in sheep, and again in humans. If I am able to isolate the cells then I will try to get them to differentiate into adult lung tissue.